

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Andrew Adams, a student at the University of Missouri-Columbia, has been distinguished as an intern for the Honorable Jake Zimmerman, Missouri State Representative; and

Whereas, Andrew Adams joined the staff of Representative Jake Zimmerman during the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, as a part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the State Capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Andrew Adams has experienced the opportunity to observe first-hand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Andrew Adams has successfully demonstrated abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Jake Zimmerman run smoothly; and

Whereas, Andrew Adams is looking forward to a new internship with United States Congressman Russ Carnahan beginning in May 2007; and

Whereas, it is our hope that Andrew Adams has better luck with his cars and related incidences in his new endeavors; and

Whereas, the members wish Andrew Adams great success with his outstanding athletic ability participating in water polo; and

Whereas, it is our hope that Andrew Adams does not over-stimulate his brain with reading or under-stimulate his brain on the golf course or the river bank while fishing; and

Whereas, Andrew Adams has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative Jake Zimmerman and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of the knowledge and skills acquired prior to this experience and has attained a variety of new skills which will be of tremendous value in wherever life's path may lead:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, proudly join the Honorable Jake Zimmerman in commending Andrew Adams for the many important contributions to our State Legislature during the session, and further extend our very best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Andrew Adams, as a measure of our gratitude.
